"Father, where is our boy to-night—
He so bold and gay?

The twilight shadows are falling now,
Why does he stay away?

Jamie is handsome, and manly, too,
And he will be good and great;

But, father, why is our darling boy
A staying away so late?

"Our noble boy is a child no more,
He has grown to man's estate;

He has gone a courting Alice Gray,

The reason he stays so late;

For her raven hair and eyes so black

Have stolen his heart away,

And he goes in the holy twilight hour

A wooing sweet Alice Gray.

"Why does the maiden lure him away,
Now we are growing so old?

And we have shielded him all his life,

Our love has never grown cold;

The maid can never love him as we

Have loved him all his years,

Who have led him along the path of life,

Sharing his smiles and tears.

"But, wife, remember long years ago,
When I was young and gay,

And you a maiden so fair and sweet,

That you stole my heart away.

I had a father old and gray,

And a mother kind and true,

Who loved me kindly all my life—

But my heart went out with you."

True An intelligent correspondent writing to the Georgetown Times, favors the building of a railroad from Cynthiana to Georgetown, and to connect with the Frankfort and Lexington railroad at Payne's Depot. If we are not mistaken, a route between these two points has already been surveyed, which passes by way of Broadwell, Leesburg and Oxford to Georgetown. The proposition is a good one, and would suit in every respect, provided it could be demonstrated to capitalists that an improvement of the kind would be a paying investment, and we will guarantee that it will be built as soon as the fact is substantiated. It would cost fifty thousand dollars per mile to lay the track, and one million would be expended before an investment could be made for rolling stock. It is an easy matter to make paper railroads, but it takes beef-eaters and brains to put one in operation. How much money will Scott county give for the road? How much will Georgetown subscribe?

We notice by a telegram to the New York Herald, that a proclamation of amnesty is about to be issued by the President of the United States, and it is said that all classes of ex-rebels will be pardoned, except those guilty of piracy, so-called. This amnesty will restore parties concerned to all civil rights except those taken away by act of Congress.

Last Saturday, McCoole and Jones, met and fought out their long expected mill. It is said that many thousands of dollars were bet on the result of the fight. Jones was whipped in 34 rounds. Jones was severely punished, but took it with fearlessness equal to his courage. He is a brave man, but is in a bad streak of luck.

Tell them to "dry-up," Morey.—Geo. Times.

We have—and they have concluded to obey orders. If they don't they shall be reconstructed with new copper, then they can drink on the Sabbath with impunity. By the way, Mr. Bell, have you reconstructed your city on the Sunday question.

The "Gatherer" says that Mr. Wash Redmon, of Bourbon, has a chicken with ears extending far above its head. We are acquainted with people in this county, whose chickens have horns, and we know many people whose chickens have no ears, whatever. Our sucking hen has been turned out to grass. Such is our information from Oddville.

A correspondent wishes to know what has become of the wagon that Craddock rode through the Mexican war in, and in remuneration for this long and tiresome ride received money enough to buy the celebrated S. R. Warrington watch.—Gath.

The watch was lost—between sunrise and sunset, where or how, history gives no account; the wagon is now on exhibition at Bunun's Museum, labelled "Craddock's Ambulance."

In Town.—Our bachelor friend, Walker Thornton, Esq., was in town a few days ago, and says he cannot do without the Gatherer. He ordered three copies. If any one is elected with enmity, call on Uncle Walker and he will, by his wit, cause them to regain their buoyancy of spirits, not alcohol.—Gath.

The True American, a Black Republican newspaper, published at Newark, Licking county, Ohio, has come out against the Constitutional Amendment passed by the Legislature of that State, to confer suffrage upon the negroes. It is said that the present Governor of Ohio, Gen. Cox, is opposed to the amendment, with hundreds and thousands of republicans of like opinion. We are satisfied the amendment will be rejected by the people, and that its enactment will prove the death knell of Jacobinism in the Buckeye State.

Col. Gillmore, Post-master at Chicago, was recently drowned in the lake near that city. His body has been recovered. When drowned he was out pleasureing on the lake in a small sailing vessel.

A Shocking punishment.—The New York correspondent of the Troy Times gives the following:

A shocking case of summary punishment which occurred in our neighboring city of Brooklyn, has just leaked out, though the most strenuous exertions were made to keep it from the public ear. It is well only to relate the following circumstances as there is reason to believe the attempted secrecy has given birth to many of the reports connected with the affair. About three weeks ago the residents of a section of Powers street were startled by the screams of woman, and immediately a servant girl was met coming from the house inquiring for the nearest physician. To inquiries made of her, she said her mistress had met with an accident. Next it was learned the injuries were inflicted by vitriol being spilled on the woman; but how, was not explained. It was also learned that a gentleman visiting the house at the time was also terribly burned from the same cause. It was then ascertained that the woman's eyes were entirely destroyed and her face horribly disfigured, and that the gentleman was so badly burned that he could not be removed from the house. But to all inquiries as to how the accident occurred, no satisfactory responses were given for a long while. An application for divorce, however, by the husband, threw some light on the subject, as people would know why a husband would wish to leave his wife in the condition she was. It was then learned that the vitriol had descended through the ceiling, where it was found that several holes had recently been made. How the vitriol came into the room, how it was spilled or why it was spilled, are questions which no one seems competent or willing to answer. But, as remarked above, report answers them freely, and the general opinion is that the husband preferred not to shoot his wife's gentleman visitor.

The Strongest Man in the World.—A native of Australia, Mr. J. E. Evans, recently gave an exhibition of remarkable strength at the Sea Hotel, Chesterfield, England, to establish his claim as the strongest man in the world. He held a fifty-six pound weight in various positions, at arm's length, and increased the number until he raised four of them above his head, holding them at arm's length, and at the same time standing upon four tumblers. He also held them on the top of a glass, and allowed a glass of water to be placed on the top of the weights. He laid flat on the floor and let a 56 pound weight fall a distance of about a yard on his bare chest; and the weight rebounded as though it had come in contact with a piece of India rubber. A piece of stone, four inches thick, was next placed on his chest, and Mr. Hinch, a blacksmith, smashed it with two blows into fragments. Mr. Hinch and Mr. Turner then cut a piece of two inch iron in two across his chest with the hammer and chisel. The feats concluded by his lying flat upon the floor, allowing Mr. Hinch to hit him, with all his strength, with a 16 pound sledge hammer. The blow was met by the Professor, and the hammer rebounded without leaving a scratch upon the body.

Clerk of the House.—W. T. Samuels, the present popular and efficient Auditor of the State, is a candidate for the office of Clerk of the next House of Representatives. His qualifications for that position and his clerical capacity generally are universally acknowledged. His true and zealous Democracy is unsurpassed. As a member of the State Democratic Central Committee, his services have been untiring and effective. We believe he has no opposition, as yet, and he richly deserves the compliment of a unanimous election.—Frank. Yeo.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Fever and Ague is rampant in all parts of the country. Quinine, the physicians admit, will not quell the phrasal of the disease which at present pervades the entire West.

It is well that it is so, for the remedy is deadlier than the disease. But if Quinine is inefficient in intermitting fevers, is irresistible. It would be safe to make a contract, under heavy penalties, that any given Fever-and-Ague District should be exempted from the disorder for any particular time, provided the inhabitants would take the bitters according to the directions, during the term of the contract. There has never been an instance in which this sterilizing and anti-febrile medicine has failed to ward off the complaint, when taken daily as a protection against malaria.

Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the official specifics and now prescribe this harmless vegetable, tonic, and nothing else, as a preventive and cure for all the forms of chills and fevers.

Vigor is the thing most needed in these cases, as well as dyspepsia and in nervous affections, and are the safest, surest and most wholesome strengthening preparation that human skill has yet concocted.

seems that this part of the proceed-

McChesny & Williams are issuing a daily, during the Bourbon Fair. More enterprise.

John Rutherford, the news-boy of Cynthiana, will have papers for sale at the drug-store of Dr. Otwell.

Considerable wheat is being shipped from Boyd's Station. It seems that our friend, Lee Boyd, attends to business, and his business is growing.

Our friend Parish, formerly of the Mt. Sterling Sentinel, is about to establish the Winchester Democrat, at Winchester, Clark county, Ky. We wish him luck.

Mr. Charles Reickel will move his jewelry establishment from Main to Pike street, in the "Webster Block," next door to the Magnolia Saloon, this week. Call and see him.

Our new bank building begins to loom up, and presents an appearance much more extensive than we anticipated. We hope to see the stone work finished very soon.

An extra train of cars will leave Cynthiana for Paris every morning during the Fair in Bourbon, immediately after the arrival of the cars from Lexington. It will return at 6 o'clock, P. M.

Godey's Lady's Book for September is an excellent specimen of that Magazine. It is finely embellished and filled with excellent reading matter.

Jno. Carter's horse beat H. C. Magee's horse last Friday, over the Lexington race course. Dr. Snedeker's horse beat Lightning in a trotting match on the same day and at the same place. It is said that Lightning was not in fix.

The Livery and Sale Stable of Hill and Forman, was knocked off to Dan McShane for $3,015. The stock sold high. We understand that Mr. Hill continues the owner of the stable yet, for some cause or other.

Two or three mules were killed on Monday morning on the railroad below Cynthiana. They would not get off the track.

The "Bourbon Democrat" has been received at this office. It has a clean face, and is edited with ability, spiced with wit and humor, which makes it readable and agreeable. S. P. Cunningham and B. W. Hallack are its editors. We wish them success.

The best lot of mules offered and sold in Paris last Monday, brought only 132 dollars per head. One lot of fine yearling steers, sold for 24 dollars and 75 cents per head, and six head of Durham heifers brought 42 dollars and 35cts per head.

Walnut street is undergoing an improvement. On both sides brick is being laid to make good walks. Pleasant street seems to go untouched. As soon as cold weather sets in, the cry will be, that the ground has too much frost in it.

A colored man, named Willis Reneker, is charged with stealing one hundred dollars, from another of his race, named Henry Reneker. We understand that Willis left the country Tuesday morning on the train going North.

Last Monday, we heard a gentleman say that the Paris correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, printed a lie, when he said that the people of that place menaced by look or act, or by any exhibition of pistols, while the colored people were passing through the streets of Paris last week on the day of their celebration. The liar ought to be known. Who was he? The gentleman who denied the assertion, is a Union man, and we believe was a federal soldier.

The City Council have put an iron railing around the court-house square, that the people may have a place to taste their horses. The man, hereafter, whose horse is found on the side-walks, will be compelled to pay a fine. Let the marshall's enforce the law in that respect.

Our old friend of the "faithful," Jno Kellar, arrived in Cynthiana last week with his family, from Missouri. He is looking hearty. He said that he passed through Cincinnati on his way home, and that the people in that fine city, were envious and jealous of the growing and prosperous city of Cynthiana. And well they may be for there is no city in Kentucky, that is growing so fast. However, we have room for a few more enterprising families.

On Saturday, the 14th inst, at 8 o'clock, a.m., the knights, who are expected to participate in the Tournament, will leave the court-house, in costume, preceded by a band of music, and march to the Fair Grounds. We hope that our friend's from Bourbon and Harrison, will be pleased with the affair, and that nothing may be said or done, which will disturb the social enjoyment that is anticipated.

On Wednesday and Friday nights, the 11th and 13th, the ladies of Cynthiana, will give at the court-house, in this city, tableau entertainments. Last Friday a rehearsal was given at Mr. T. Dills, which was a grand affair. The Amateur Theatricals, of Paris have volunteered to play "Paddy Mile's Boy" on both nights. The fund received by the ladies will be appropriated to the Monumental Society.

A man and woman, named Wilson, who were said to be married, passing through this county several months since, found a vacant house on the farm of a citizen who lives in the southern portion of this county, took possession and went into the house-keeping business. The woman was pale, hearty and quite good looking, but gave herself up to the embrace of whisky and a colored man, with a loss of peace in her household, and a good name in the neighborhood. Their neighbors determined that they should not remain, and they left some two weeks ago. When crossing the Ohio River, near New Albany, as we have been informed, the husband attempted to throw his wife into the river, and as she was as strong and much more resolute than the husband, dragged him overboard with her, and they both went down together, never to rise again. Mr. Wilson was said to be an industrious, honest man, but was not as well matched as he should have been. They have found a lasting peace in a watery grave.

Carpenter & Bros., sold their lot on Main street, just below Megibben's ware house to Mr. James Bruce, of Colemansville, for one thousand and fifty dollars, cash. Mr. Bruce will erect a double tenement house on his lot immediately.

On last Friday evening, some evil disposed person, who deserves a term in the penitentiary, cut the throat of a horse, belonging to Wm. Thompson of this city.

We understand that three beef cattle, belonging to Mrs. Joel Frazer, were killed by the locomotive on last Monday.

We take pleasure in noticing two new pieces of music from the house of D. P. Faulds, No. 70 Main street, Louisville. "Poking the Fire," song with chorus, by J. W. Long, and "Sweet Alice," music and words by J. W. Bradley.

Personal.—It was a source of gratification to us to meet at Cynthiana, on Monday, our friend, Charles T. Daniel, who has returned to Kentucky, and is now practicing law in Harrison and the adjoining counties. He is eminently worthy the patronage of all. From a long personal acquaintance with him, we are warranted in expressing the conviction that he will attend to all business promptly and give entire satisfaction. He is a most promising young man, and we predict for him a brilliant future.—Gatherer.

Last Monday, we heard a gentleman say that the Paris correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, printed a lie, when he said that the people of that place menaced by look or act, or by any exhibition of pistols, while the colored people were passing through the streets of Paris last week on the day of their celebration. FAMILY Sewing Machine,

This machine is without a superior in the world. It runs as fast and easy and with as little noise as any first class machine in market. It will sew from the stoutest leather to the finest bank bill, and makes every stitch perfect. It hem, fells, binds, cords and tucks, and is adapted to every variety of work. It is strong, compact and durable, and will last twenty years, for ordinary family sewing, if not broken by accident or carelessness. But it is useless to parade a long list of the merits of this machine, to furnish the public, as the poorest concerns furnish them in the greatest abundance. All can try this machine by calling on the agent and it will proclaim its own merits.
